Letters of intent for setting up of industries

278. DR. MOHD. HASHIM KIDWAI: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) the total number of letters of intents/licences issued to industries

during the years 1985-86 and 1986-87, State-wise; and

(b) the total number of industries set up in pursuance of these licences, State-wise till February, 1986?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) A statement is enclosed. [See Appendix CXLII, Annexure No. 18.]

(b) A letter of intent is granted with an initial validity period of one year and further extensions are also granted on adequate justification. After the entrepreneur fulfils the conditions of the letter of intent, the same is converted ino an industrial licence. The initial validity period of an industrial licence is two years within which the entrepreneur is expected to commence production. However, further extensions beyond the initial validity period of two years can also be granted by the administrative Ministry concerned on genuine grounds. It generally takes about three to four years for an industrial project to fructify. Actual gestation period, however, varies from project to project.
